THE DUBLIN CONCERT

David Syme

An American piano virtuoso living in Ireland, David Syme has had a long and colorful career. He has performed in Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Kennedy Center, Wigmore Hall, and in major venues in 17 European countries, Canada and Mexico. David Syme is a UCC Ritmüller Classical Artist in Residence and will perform on the hand built Ritmüller RS280 Concert Grand piano.

Internationally renowned pianist David Syme will be the headline artist of a special live recording at Dublin's Bord Gáis Energy Theatre. David Syme will perform an eclectic program drawn from his vast repertoire. The event will be hosted by Thornton Pianos as part of The Superior Sessions.

The Dublin Concert will also feature performances of some of Ireland's finest talent: Nathan Mac, Jacob Koopman, Muireann, Gemma Cox, Megan Burke, Colm Gavin, Martin McDonnell, Sophie Doyle Ryder, Pastiche, Seán Rooney, and Last Apollo.

The Superior Sessions launched in September 2020 as a platform to support artists during extremely tough times. This show is to raise funds for Minding Creative Minds and will be a mix of contemporary and classical music.

The show will be hosted on vimeo OTT. Ticket purchasers will also own their copy of the show once they have bought a ticket and it has gone live.

Featuring the Ritmüller 9' 2" Concert Grand Piano. Designed in Europe and built in Germany, the RS280 is one of the most unique and technologically advanced Concert Grand pianos ever crafted.
